Why we should have a TOP seed: Our girls have put in extensive work this year – with not only adjusting to new coaching but Learning much more about the sport than they knew. From transitioning to new rotations and specified positions, these girls have progressed in months, what would normally take years. For their first year of expectations to perform at a higher level, they have proven themselves. Not only in their sport, but in spiritual maturity – we have seen amazing things this season. When facing a competitive team which had difficult team culture, our girls chose not to meet the adversary on their level, but instead chose to pray for them and their coaches.
